PHILOSOPHY:

International Youth Folklore Festival PRIMORSKO is not a competition. Folklore dancing and vocal groups, instrumentalists and soloists may participate in it. There are no restrictions on the number of performing ensembles and number of participants in each formation. Young painters and photographers are also invited to the art planner, which is a part from the festival's program. Participants from all over the world, interesting program, fulfilling recreation and various trips- these preconditions strengthened the festival as a favorite destination for thousands of folklore artists from over 30 countries.

WE ARE ALL CONNECTED BY A LOVE FOR TRADITION!
